CAPITAL AND SURBLUS,

If HE above are First Clair, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into lifetr condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no apperfore. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past tentyears, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to life fluctuations of the market, and Hable, in times of panic, as the apperience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless, And whilst there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and objected statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital fance the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies lassed without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Michael Companies and a certainty given instead of an kinericatory. All togics promptly adjusted and paid. CAPITAL AND SUBHLUS, . . .

Steamer Arizona has been raised, and is now afloat, and the entrance to the canal is Bowling Green advices say that Mitchell captured five locomotives at the depot, and scattered the last of the rebels there by

by shells, killing some 15.

There is great excitement and rejoicing here at the Fort Donelson capture, in hon-or of which a supper is given at the Galt House, this evening, to Gen. Buell and staff.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17. A private message this evening to the sanitary commission, from Cairo, says there. are 300 killed, 600 wounded and 100 missing at Fort Donelson.

Chicago, Feb. 17. The following message was received from the governor this morning:
"PULASKI, Feb. 17.

"I am on my way with Auditor Dubois, Secretary Hatch and General Wood, to Fort Donelson. There are many sad hearts to day, but we have gained a glorious victory. People by thousands on the road tory. People by thousands on the rond and at the stations, with shoutings and with flags, thank God that our Union is safe now and forever. Send surgeons, funds and clothing for the wounded.
(Signed) RICHARD YATES."

CINCINNATI, Feb. 17.
The steamer Alica Collier leaves to night with twelve surgeons and over one hundred boxes of supplies for Fort Donelson .-Three thousand dollars were subscribed in short time for the relief of the wounded.

The United States sanitary commission elegraphed Gen. Halleck to send to Cincinnati as many wounded soldiers as he saw proper, saying the citizens of Cincinnati would gladly provide for them.

To night there is a general illumination, with bonfires and fireworks. A national sainte will be fired from the heavy guns on the fortifications around the city at noon to-morrow. Troops have been passing through the city all day, en route for the Cumberland river.

Indianapolis, Feb. 17.
A special train left at 7 P. M. for Fort Donelson, with physicians, twenty-five volunteer nurses and a large quantity of hospital stores. A citizens' meeting has been called to make arrangements for taking care of the wounded that will be sent here. Gov.

Morton leaves for Fort Donelson to night.
FORTRESS MONROE, Feb. 17.
We understand that the Norfolk Day Book of this morning makes no mention of the surrender of Fort Donelson, but represents that the contest is still going on. Nothing additional has been received rom Savannah. Washington, Feb. 18. Mr. Wilson, of Mass., from the military committee, reported back the joint resolu-tion from the house relative to certain railroads in Missouri. The resolution authorizes the secretary of war to pay certain railroads in Missouri for transportation.— Pending the consideration of the question, a message was received from the house asking a return of the resolution, which was done. Mr. Harris moved to print the bill offered by him. He said the bill was founded on the English principle of outlawry. It pro-vides for the forfeiture of the rights and privileges under the laws of those who take up arms against the United States. Ordered printed.

The case of Mr. Starke, of Oregon, was taken up.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 18. It is rumored by passengers on board the Old Point bont, that news had reached Norfolk of the surrender of Savanuah without firing a gun. Our despatch from Ft. Mon-roe makes no mention of it. The story is, therefore, given as a mere rumor.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18. The navy department has received the flag which most prominently waved over Fort Donelson.

The navy department has no other despatches from Savannah than those received through the press agency. The committee on ways and means recommend that the house agree to about two-thirds of the senate's amendments to the treasury note bill; that they disagree to those reducing the number of United States Milwaukee Office; 17 Newhall House. notes authorized to be issued, from $150, 000,000 to $100,000,000, and to the striking out of the original proviso that $50,000,000 of the notes shall be in lieu of the demand treasury notes authorized by the act of July last. The committee also recommend to disagree to senate's amendment that the July notes shall be receivable in payment of taxes, duties, imports, excise dues and demands of every kind due to the United States, and of all claims and debts of every kind, except for interest upon bonds and notes, which shall be paid in coin. The committee also disagree to the amendment fixing the redemption of bonds at the pleasare of the United States, after five years, and payable twenty years from date, &c.

S the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented, FIFTY DOLLARS.

"The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.
Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy LEATHER WORK, in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmer's etiching that cannot be better done with them mere attaching that cannot be better done with them thus by hand, so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these muchines is 24 inches long, and the santtle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large macdines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Lotter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interiock attich, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sawing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Speols, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold by the most interior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of henefitting the public and conselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the fron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always hable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair. The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great drambitity and rapably of speration, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best medal and facished to perfriction. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapaid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by as, will curn more money with less labor than any others, whether than any others machine as a gift.

Forever float that standard sheet! . Where breathes the foe but falls before us? With Freedom's soil beneath our feet, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

The Nows.

It is quite probable that the rebels at Columbus are evacuating that place .-Why don't our folks go down and give them a trial of the mortar boats? The son of the robel Gen. Price has been captured at Warsaw, Missouri. Two more rebel regiments have been captured near Fort Donelson. A federal gunboat has been up to Clarksville. The rebels are retiring panie stricken upon Nashville, where they will make their next stand.

Our army has penetrated into Arkausas, in pursuit of Price, who keeps a little ahead

It is rumpred that Governor Harris, of Tennessec, has ordered all the rebels in that state to lay down their arms. Doubtful.

The European powers propose to set up a king in Mexico.

What the Banks propose to Do.

It is stated by the New York Post and the Philadelphia Ledger, that in case the treasury note bill passes Congress and becomes a law, the banks while under suspension of specie payments, intend to flood the country with their own issues, holding the treasury notes in lieu of specie. There is no doubt that the eastern banks will do this, and endeavor to push their circulation west; our people should be warned in time against it. Let it be a rule with every one to take no eastern bills, but encourage in every way possible the circulation of treasury notes, because the banks being under no restraint, will over issue, and the time will come, unknown to the people, for a colnois and Wisconsin.

It would be well, also, for our legislature, if it authorises the adspension of specie payments in this state, to limit our own banks to their present issues. Good banks, in these times, will not be found expanding their circulation. Those, therefore, which are found urging their notes upon the business community, and through them upon the people, should be shunned. The national treasury notes will be the best currency for the west ever issued, and it is the duty of western legislatures to guard and protect it from being abused by the banks.

It can be easily seen that if our banks are permitted to absorb treasury notes, and under suspension of specio payments, issue their own bills in the place of them, the people are deprived of a currency good all over the country, while a local currency will take its place, upon which there will he a continual discount, in the shape of exchange upon the east. If a merchant gathers a thousand dollars of treasury notes to pay a debt at the east, he will not be compelled to purchase exchange, but may pay in trensury notes, which are at par in New York. But if the banks absorb treasury notes and circulate their own bills instead, then they will charge such exchange as they please. If we desire, in the west, to emancipate ourselves from the enormous tax paid to banks and brokers for converting our local bank notes into something that will pay debts in New York, let us insist upon the free circulation of the national currency which the United States treasury is about to furnish us. It will be our own fault if we do not reap the advantages which | ed a bailstorm of grape and canister into may flow to us from this measure.

Explanations.

We have received letters from Madison in relation to the statements we published a the ground lost, and a hill in advance befew days since about certain expenses of sides. the state. Senator Carey, we are assured, absentees, on furlough, and will leave for his regiment in the course of a fortnight. He renders his services in the senate gratu-

He has worked hard and faithfully, and if his pay has been wont over the field after the buttle, and large, we are told that it might have been much larger by giving him his full position in the Governor's staff and the pay attach-

Fonz Bonzison, Peb. 18.) Tia. Guno, Feb. 17. The greatest victory and hardest fought battle of the rebellion was consummated on Sunday morning by the unconditional surrender of the rebels at Fort Donelson, Tennessee, to the federal army under Gen. Grant, after a desperate struggle of over three days and nights. The forces were about equal, but the rebels had all the adventage of position, being well fortified on two immense hills, with their fort near the river, on a lower piece of ground. From the fort their entrenchments, rifle pits, and abattis extended up the river, behind the town of Dover. Their fortfications on the land side, back from the river, were at least four miles in length.

their fortifications where it came down to the river. This battery mounted nine heavy guns. The rebels were at least 25, Buckner, Floyd and Bushrod Johnston, and were sure of victory; and in any other cause, and pitted against less brave troops than those against whom they contended could have repelled a force of one hundred thousand men. The northwest has done the business for the rebellion. It has fought the enemy even-hunded on an unprotected field, whilst he was sately protected by earthworks. It has fought him

The gunboats did not do the service they did at Fort Henry, as the enemy, lodged on high hills, had the advantage over them, as we had no morturs. Three boats were disabled soon after the opening of the battle; one of them badly, having nine men | ed change of commanders, and the over-

Next Wallace's brigade, the 11th, 20th, 45th and 48th Illinois, and Taylor's and McAllister's batteries.

These three brigades composed McClernard's division, and hore the brunt of the battle. The enemy concentrated his main force on our right, to turn it, which was done by our men getting out of ammunition, and the confusion created in getting up reinforcements. The division retreated about half a mile.

At this time Gen. Grant ordered Gen. Smith to move forward his division, and storm the enemy's works on our left. This order was obeyed with great alacrity, and soon the cheers of our during soldiery were heard, and the old flag displayed from within the enemy's intreuchments.

Gen. Grant then sent word to Generals McClernard and Wallace that Gen. Smith was within the enemy's intrenchments, and ordering their forces to move forward and renew the attack on the right.

The News.

It is quite probable that the rebels at Columbus are evacuating that place .--Why don't our folks go down and give them a trial of the mortar boats?

The son of the robel Gen. Price has been captured at Warsaw, Missouri.

Two more rebel regiments have been captured near Fort Donelson. A federal gunboat has been up to Clarksville. The rebels are retiring panic stricken upon Nashville, where they will make their next stand.

Our army has penetrated into Arkausas, in pursuit of Price, who keeps a little ahead of them.

It is rumored that Governor Harris, of Tennessee, has ordered all the rebels in that state to lay down their arms. Doubtful. The European powers propose to set up a king in Mexico.

What the Banks propose to Do.

It is stated by the New York Post and the Philadelphia Ledger, that in case the treasury note bill passes Congress and becomes a law, the banks while under suspension of specie payments, intend to flood the country with their own issues, holding the treasury notes in lieu of specie. There is no doubt that the eastern banks will do this, and endeavor to push their circulation west; our people should be warned in time against it. Let it be a rule with every one to take no eastern bills, but encourage in every way possible the circulation of treasury notes, because the banks being under no restraint, will over issue, and the time will come, unknown to the people, for a colapse, such as overtook the banks of Illinois and Wisconsin. It would be well, also, for our legislature,

" if it authorises the suspension of specie payments in this state, to limit our own banks to their present issues. Good banks, in these times, will not be found expanding their circulation. Those, therefore, which are found arging their notes upon the business community, and through them upon the people, should be shunned. The national treasury notes will be the best currency for the west ever issued, and it is the duty of western legislatures to guard and protect it from being abused by the banks. It can be easily seen that if our banks are permitted to absorb treasury notes, and under suspension of specie payments, issue their own bills in the place of them, the people are deprived of a currency good all over the country, while a local currency | had stood their ground so manfully for three will take its place, upon which there will | hours, retired to procure amountaion, the be a continual discount, in the shape of exchange upon the east. If a merchant gathers a thousand dollars of treasury notes to pay a debt at the east, he will not be compelled to purchase exchange, but may pay in treasury notes, which are at par in New York. But if the banks absorb treasury notes and circulate their own bills instead, then they will charge such exchange as they please. If we desire, in the west, to emancipate ourselves from the enormous tax paid to banks and brokers for converting our local bank notes into something that will pay debts in New York, let us insist upon the free circulation of the national currency which the United States treasury is about to furnish us. It will be our own fault if we do not reap the advantages which may flow to us from this measure.

Senator Carey, we are assured, was left in charge of 40 sick men in the regiment of which he is surgeon, and 80 absentees, on furlough, and will leave for his regiment in the course of a fortnight. He renders his services in the senate gratuitously, drawing no pay for them.

Mr. Watson's services, owing to the peculiar circumstances in which the rebellion found the military affairs of the state, were indispensable, and his position as secretary to the Adjutant General, made him more familiar with the duties required than any other person in the state. He has worked hard and faithfully, and if his pay has been large, we are told that it might have been much larger by giving him his full position in the Governor's staff and the pay attached to it.

It is due to these gentlemen to say that the explanations given us place them in a different light than that in which we viewed them, and we cheerfully give them pub-

The Great Victory on the Cumberland.

FORT BOXELAGY, Feb. 18. Via, Caro, Feb. 17.

The greatest victory and hardest fought battle of the rebellion was consummated on Sunday morning by the unconditional surof the rebels at Fort Donelson, Tennessee, to the federal army under Gen. Grant, after a desperate struggle of over bree days and nights. The forces were about equal, but the rebels had all the advantage of position, being well fortified on two immense hills, with their fort near the river, on a lower piece of ground. From the fort their entrenchments, rifle pits, and abattis extended up the river, behind the town of Dover. Their fortfications on the land side, back from the river, were at least four miles in length.

Their water battery was in the centre of their fortifications where it came nown to the river. This battery mounted nine heavy guns. The rebels were at least 25,-000 strong, commanded by Gens. Pillow, Buckner, Floyd and Bushrod Johnston, and were sure of victory; and in any other cause, and pitted against less brave troops than those against whom they contended, could have repelled a force of one hundred thousand men. The northwest has done the business for the rebellion. It has fought the enemy even-handed on an un-protected field, whilst he was sately proected by earthworks. It has fought him at a disadvantage and forced him to yield unconditionally. No Bull Run affair this. The gunboats did not do the service they did at Fort Henry, as the enemy, lodged on high hills, had the advantage over them, as we had no morturs. Three boats were disabled soon after the opening of the battle; one of them hadly, having nine men

As it would require some days to repair. Gen. Grant decided not to wait, but to attack the enemy with his land force alone. I continue my synopsis of daily events from my last.

The gunboats, four in number, opened on the enemy at 3 o'clook on Friday P. M., with considerable effect, as the rebels wer driven in large numbers to the upper works. Some of the shot from the gunboats took effect on our extreme right, killing one and wounding several of our men. Towards night the cannonading suddenly stopped, as three of the boats were disabled. was badly hurt, having nine men killed.

The day-Friday-being bad, nothing was done except getting different brigades in position, and attaching new arrivals of troops to different commands, which took up the greater portion of the night.

At daylight on Saturday morning the enemy opened on the 18th Illinois, Col. Law ler, when all of Oglesby's brigade was soon This was soon followed by Walengaged. lace's and McArthur's brigades taking part, the latter acting under McClernand's command.

As the position of the troops had been changed on Friday night, and Gen. Grant being sent for during the night from the gunboats, the movements of all troops except those attached to McClernard's division were conducted without anything but general orders. At the suggestion of Gen. McClernard,

Gen. Lew. Wallace seut up four regiments to support his division, who were nearly out of ammunition. The regiments sent up were the 17th and 25th Kentucky and 31st Indiana, the 44th Indiana being held back as a reserve. From the commencement of the batt'e in the morning until I o'clock the fighting was terrific.

The troops on the right were disposed as follows: First-McArthur's brigade, consisting of the 9th, 12th and 41st Illinois, having temporarily attached the 17th and 19th Illinois. Next came Oglesby's brigade, the 8th, 18th, 29th, 30th and 31st Illinois, and Schwartz' and Dresser's batteries. Next Wallace's brigade, the 11th, 20th, 45th and 48th Illinois, and Taylor's and McAllister's batteries.

These three brigades composed McClernard's division, and bore the brunt of the hattle. The enemy concentrated his main force on our right, to turn it, which was done by our men getting out of ammunition, and the confusion created in getting up reinforcements. The division retreated about half a mile

As soon as McClernard's division, who

At this time Gen. Grant ordered Gen. Smith to move forward his division, and storm the enemy's works on our left. This order was obeyed with great alacrity, and soon the cheers of our daring soldiery were heard, and the old flag displayed from with-

Gen. Grant then sent word to Generals

McClernard and Wallace that Gen. Smith was within the enemy's intrenchments, and ordering their forces to move forward and renew the attack on the right.

One of Gen. Wallace's brigades, the 11th Indiana, 8th Missonri, and some Ohio regiments, were rapidly thrown in position, and company A, Chicago Light Artillery, Lieut. Wood in command, planted in the road. As the rebels, supposing we were on the retreat, came yelling out of their works into the road, the Chicago boys poured a hailstorm of grape and canister into them, slaughtering dozens of them. Simultaneously with this, the infantry commenced firing at will, and the rebels went pell mell back into their works, our We have received letters from Madison men advancing and taking possession of in relation to the statements we published a the ground lost, and a hill in advance be-

They stood for three hours under a galling fire, and have suffered terribly, as their decimated ranks show. No confirmation of the report that another federal vessel, supposed to be the Brooklyn, was cruising off the Isle of Wight. There were rumors of a three-masted paddle steamer, supposed to be a privateer, off Cape Clear.

At the annual meeting of the Liverpool chamber of commerce the blocking up of Charleston harbor was strongly denounced and the efficiency of the blockade questioned, but continued non-intervention was generally approved. A letter was read from Mr. Cobden, showing the paramount importance of settling belligerent rights, and the necessity of England agreeing to the American doctrine relative to private property at sea.

Bright, in a speech at Birmingham, denied that the American blockade was ineffective, and ridiculed the idea that America was in a position to be insulted, and pointed out the dangers of interference .--He strongly urged neutrality.

It is stated that minister Adams does not conceal his indignation at Earl Russel's late letter to the admiralty, relative to the use of British ports. There are, also, considerable differences in political circles as to the policy and propriety of the act. It is asserted that the allies are determined that their armies shall march on the capitol of Mexico next month, and the report is revived and gains strength, that the arch duke Maxmilian will be tendered the

FORT DONELSON, Feb. 17. The great fire which was seen up the river from this point, last night, was the burning of the Tennessee rolling mills four miles from here, by our gunboats. The works had been used by the rebels for making shot, shell and other material for war purposes, and it was an extensive concern. Gen. Grant has promulgated most stringent orders against plundering from the three colonels, one lieutenant colonel, one inhabitants, also against stealing property taken in battle. The rebels threw most of their mails into

Capt. Dixon, rebel chief of artillery and engineer, who constucted the fortifications, was killed in the bombardment, Friday, in one of his own batteries. CAIRO, Feb. 19.

It is believed now that a portion of the rebel prisoners will be sent to Alton, others o Chicago, Fort Wayne and Detroit. Troops are continually arriving and departing. It is believed if permitted to do o, many rebel prisoners would gladly take up arms on the side of the Union. Numbers of privates declare they have seen enough of secession. The officers, however, are generally very morose and bitter in their expressions against the north. In addition to the killed and wounded previously reported are, 45th Illinois, Comnissary Sergeant Travers, killed, and Lieut. Col. Maltby, ball in his leg.

Brig. Gen. Edward Price, son of Sterling

Price, Col. Philips, Maj. Cross and Capt. Crosby, were captured near Warsaw, on Sunday night, and brought to this place. The prisoners were captured by Captain Stubbs, of the 8th Iows. They had some 500 recruits for Price in charge, who had just crossed the Osage river, but as Capt. Stubbs had but a small force he did not follow them. ST. LOUIS, Feb. 19. Republican's Cairo dispatch says: The atest advices from Donelson report that the gunboat St. Louis, Capt. Paulding, pro ceeded up the Cumberland to Clarksville and found the enemy abandoning that place in a panic. Two large flats, laden with munitions of war, were captured at the rolling mill, just below Clarksville. Everything is being moved to Nashville, as fas as possible, where the next rebel stand would be made. Everything at Donelson is progressing satisfactorily. Our army is encamped in the captured works, baving comfortable quarters in the log huts and tents of the late garrison. The soldiers are very enthusiastic, and are anxious to march at once against Nashville. With the exception of colds, consequent upon recent exposure, the army was well. The actual number of prisoners taken is thirteen thousand and three hundred .-Among them is Gen. West, not previously Sr. Louis, Feb. 19. A union scout, who has been operating up the Tennessee and Cumberland rivers reached here this A. It was reported that the bridge at Bridgeport, some 70 miles above, hed been disabled, but this s not confirmed. The Harkets.

Scott telegraphed the Illinois central railroad company to render what aid they could towards fitting up boats for the new mortars recently sent to Cairo. This dispatch was received on Monday morning, and by 5 o'clock P. M. the com-pany had purchased, and had on the way, 4,000 feet of oak ship timber, suitable for planking flat boats and rendering them fit for service as gunboats, to be mounted with the several heavy mortars heretofore notice ed as having been shipped to Cairo. Fifty men were sent from the Illinois central car-shops, and fifty additional mechanics were employed and sent down to assist in dispatching the work. Superintendent Arthur goes to Cairo this morning, to ren der whatever advice may be necessary.--Much credit is due to the Illinois central railroad company for this manifestation of their willingness to do whatever is in their power that the government may ask; and partment, and to the purchasing agent, for the promptness with which they have acted

WANTED.

J. M. BURGESS, Postmaster.

Any quantity of good DRY WOOD are requested to bring it soon, as we are in want of the same.

The Chaplain of the Thirteenth.

EDITORS GALETTE :- The following account of Mr. Tilton, by one of the most in telligent and conscientious men of the regiment, not a member of his denomination, is just what we all expected, and must assure us that the counsel was right, which led him from home and usefulness here, into the perils of the camp and the enemy's country: E. J. G.

"The more acquainted I get with Mr. T., the greater faith I have that God called him to this place. Earnest, hard-working, patient, generous and kind, he wins his way, and commends his doctrines to all. As one of the soldiers remarked lately, he has struck that happy mean between the familiarity which breeds contempt and a rigid sanctimony."

A COMPLIMENT.-Mr. George R. French, recently of this city, who is now orderly sergeant is Captain McLennan's company of New York volunteers, was the recipient, a few days since, of a splendid silver-mounted revolver of Colt's pattern, from his lady friends in Syracuse, through Miss Nettie Tallman.

THE MARKETS .-- In consequence of the cheering news from our armies, the prices of produce are going up generally. Pork, flour and wheat have all advanced, and all firm and in good demand. The prospect of the opening of the Mississippi river excites hope and speculation.

Subscriptions for the relief of the wounded at the battle of Fort Donelson, were made at Chicago, on Monday, to the amount of $2,783,80; the board of trade giving $675.

FOUND .- A lady's fur cuff has been left at this office for the owner. For the Gazette.

SECOND ASSISTANT PHYSICIAN THIRD REG. Wis. CAVALRY,-Dr. J. S. Lane of this city, who has been recently very properly commissioned as 2d assistant physician to Col. Barstow's regiment of cavalry, we believe was the first physician who settled in Janesville, and at that time his ride embraced twenty or twenty-five miles.-When we first became acquainted with the Doctor, about sixteen years since, at which time the fever and ague, and billious fever were visiting the domicils of the settlers, Dr. L. was doing a vast amount of labor. By day and by night, almost unceasingly he was on duty apparently bestowing his services as cheerfully on the humblest cottager, as upon the more favored. His Milton Academy. highest aim seemed to be to relieve the sick without hardly a thought of the rewards, hence he has never accumulated his

We regard his appointment a very fortunate one for the regiment, for the position to which he is assigned few will render more, or better service; his uniform kindnes of disposition, his readiness at all times to cheerfally perform his duty, and his long accustomed babit of incessant watching at the bedside of the sick, and rendering many little attentions not customary among physicians, and all characteristic of Dr. L., which the sick or disabled soldier, far from home and friends will not fail to appreciate. If constant and unremitting attention to the comfort of those under his charge are desirable, he possesses them in an emminent degree. We unhesitatingly predict for Dr. J. S. Lane the universal esteem of the cavalry boys.

WATER WITCH FESTIVAL. The seventh ennual festival of Water Witch Engine Company No. 2, is to take place at the Myers' House, on next Friday evening. From the organization of this company up to the present, its annual festivals have always been well attended; and we hope the coming one may be even more of a success than any that have preceded it. The firemen of the city deserve encouragement at the hands of our people. They are among its best friends; and our property holders should feel a just pride in sustaining them, not only while they are on the "brakes," but also in the social and convivial circles of life. We therefore earnestly hope that the festival of Water Witch company may be well attended next Friday night.

THE APPLETON BELLE.—This boat, which was burned by the rebels to prevent her falling into the hands of the union forces, is a native of Wisconsin. She was employed as a passenger boat from Green Bay to Fond du Lac, and, on the extension of the railway to Appleton, was taken to the Tennessee river via the Fox, Wisconsin, and Mississippi rivers, where she was engaged in the coal trade. HOAXED.—Our neighbor up at Jefferson publishes the following: THE VERY LATEST NEWS!-A gentleman who came up on the train this (Saturday) morning, informs us that a telegraph was received at Fort Atkinson this morning, stating that our troops had been defeated at Fort Donaldson, and that the rebels had taken twelve thousand prisoners. This number will probably be reduced considerably, but it will be a terrible blow; won't do to place too much confidence in the report, though, as telegraphs and "re-liable gentleme." have been known to be

The want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the bistory as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall ronder it acceptable to all.
